ACTFL® LEVEL: Intermediate High

Typically, test takers at the Intermediate High level can speak with ease and confidence when dealing with uncomplicated tasks in straightforward situations. These situations involve exchanging basic information related to work, recreation, and personal interests. Test takers at this level can create a relevant response when asked to express an opinion or respond to a complicated request. However, for more complicated tasks, test takers may struggle to communicate reasons or explanations for their responses. In general, they can:

- answer straightforward questions and give basic information with ease
- state and elaborate an opinion (with limited success at times, due to unclear pronunciation grammar mistakes, or a limited range of vocabulary)
- speak using connected discourse of paragraph length at times, with some breakdowns
- pronounce words and phrases in a manner that is intelligible for simple tasks, but may cause difficulty for listeners for more complicated tasks

PRONUNCIATION: MEDIUM

When reading aloud your pronunciation is generally intelligible with some lapses.

INTONATION AND STRESS: MEDIUM

When reading aloud your use of intonation and stress is generally effective.

Note: TOEIC scores more than two years old cannot be reported or validated.
